

CAD/CAM IN DENTISTRY

1. What does the abbreviation CAD/CAM mean?
2. Explain the term digital workflow (CAD/CAM process)
3. Explain the term wax up (traditional proces of fabrication)
4. How long does it take?
5. Give examples of dental prosthesis that can be manufactured using the CAD/CAM system
6. What does the CAD/CAM system consist of?
7. What materials are used?
8. What are advantages and disadvantages of the CAD/CAM system?

CAD/CAM IN DENTISTRY

1. What does the abbreviation CAD/CAM mean?
2. Explain the term digital workflow (CAD/CAM process)
3. Explain the term wax up (traditional proces of fabrication)
4. How long does it take?
5. Give examples of dental prosthesis that can be manufactured using the CAD/CAM system
6. What does the CAD/CAM system consist of?
7. What materials are used?
8. What are advantages and disadvantages of the CAD/CAM system?

CAD/CAM IN DENTISTRY

1. What does the abbreviation CAD/CAM mean?
2. Explain the term digital workflow (CAD/CAM process)
3. Explain the term wax up (traditional proces of fabrication)
4. How long does it take?
5. Give examples of dental prosthesis that can be manufactured using the CAD/CAM system
6. What does the CAD/CAM system consist of?
7. What materials are used?
8. What are advantages and disadvantages of the CAD/CAM system?

CAD/CAM IN DENTISTRY

1. What does the abbreviation CAD/CAM mean?
2. Explain the term digital workflow (CAD/CAM process)
3. Explain the term wax up (traditional proces of fabrication)
4. How long does it take?
5. Give examples of dental prosthesis that can be manufactured using the CAD/CAM system
6. What does the CAD/CAM system consist of?
7. What materials are used?
8. What are advantages and disadvantages of the CAD/CAM system?

CAD/CAM IN DENTISTRY

1. What does the abbreviation CAD/CAM mean?
2. Explain the term digital workflow (CAD/CAM process)
3. Explain the term wax up (traditional proces of fabrication)
4. How long does it take?
5. Give examples of dental prosthesis that can be manufactured using the CAD/CAM system
6. What does the CAD/CAM system consist of?
7. What materials are used?
8. What are advantages and disadvantages of the CAD/CAM system?

CAD/CAM IN DENTISTRY

1. What does the abbreviation CAD/CAM mean?
2. Explain the term digital workflow (CAD/CAM process)
3. Explain the term wax up (traditional proces of fabrication)
4. How long does it take?
5. Give examples of dental prosthesis that can be manufactured using the CAD/CAM system
6. What does the CAD/CAM system consist of?
7. What materials are used?
8. What are advantages and disadvantages of the CAD/CAM system?