

THE HISTORY OF THE CZECH REP. & THE HISTORY OF THE 17th NOVEMBER

1918 28 October 1918 Czechoslovakia created Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk

- After the 1st world war (WW1) on October 28, 1918 an independent Czechoslovakia was formed/ created. Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk was the first president of Czechoslovakia.

1939 2nd world war started GERMAN invasion Václav Sedláček, Jan Opletal

- In 1939 Germany invaded Czechoslovakia and the 2nd world war (WW2) started.
In November 1939 - 8 months later, Václav Sedláček & Jan Opletal protested against the German occupation in a demonstration. Václav Sedláček, a baker, was shot and and Jan Opletal, a student of the Medical Faculty of Charles University, was wounded wundyd and died.

Several students and professors were executed and over 1200 students were sent to concentration camps. All Czech Universities and colleges were closed.

1945 May 8th the end of the 2nd World War the Liberation of the CR by the American and Russian armies

1948 the Communist Party won the elections RUSSIA took power

After the 2nd WW, in 1948, the Communist Party won the elections in our country and Russia took power over our country.

1968 Russia invaded Czechoslovakia the Russian army

- In August 1968 Russian army – 2000 tanks invaded our country.

1969 Jan Palach was a Czech student of history and political economy at Charles University who burnt himself in January 1969 as a protest against the Russian invasion. He was 20 years old.

1989 17th November Velvet Revolution Václav Havel

- On 17th November 1989 over 250.000 people came to/ gathered (shromáždili se) in the Wenceslas Square to protest against the communist regime [režim].

The 'VELVET REVOLUTION' ENDED THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN A PEACEFUL WAY.

VÁCLAV HAVEL became the first president of the new democratic Czechoslovakia in 1989.

1993 January The Czech Republic Václav Havel

- On 1st January 1993 Czechoslovakia separated [sep@- rejtýd](rozdělit se) into the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Václav Havel became the president of the Czech Republic.

©Ali

THE HISTORY OF THE CZECH REP. & THE HISTORY OF THE 17th NOVEMBER

1918 28 October 1918 Czechoslovakia created Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk

- After the 1st world war (WW1) on October 28, 1918 an independent Czechoslovakia was formed/ created. Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk was the first president of Czechoslovakia.

1939 2nd world war started GERMAN invasion Václav Sedláček, Jan Opletal

- In 1939 Germany invaded Czechoslovakia and the 2nd world war (WW2) started.
In November 1939 - 8 months later, Václav Sedláček & Jan Opletal protested against the German occupation in a demonstration. Václav Sedláček, a baker, was shot and and Jan Opletal, a student of the Medical Faculty of Charles University, was wounded wundyd and died.

Several students and professors were executed and over 1200 students were sent to concentration camps. All Czech Universities and colleges were closed.

1945 May 8th the end of the 2nd World War the Liberation of the CR by the American and Russian armies

1948 the Communist Party won the elections RUSSIA took power

After the 2nd WW, in 1948, the Communist Party won the elections in our country and Russia took power over our country.

1968 Russia invaded Czechoslovakia the Russian army

- In August 1968 Russian army – 2000 tanks invaded our country.

1969 Jan Palach was a Czech student of history and political economy at Charles University who burnt himself in January 1969 as a protest against the Russian invasion. He was 20 years old.

1989 17th November Velvet Revolution Václav Havel

- On 17th November 1989 over 250.000 people came to/ gathered (shromáždili se) in the Wenceslas Square to protest against the communist regime [režim].

The 'VELVET REVOLUTION' ENDED THE COMMUNIST REGIME IN A PEACEFUL WAY.

VÁCLAV HAVEL became the first president of the new democratic Czechoslovakia in 1989.

1993 January The Czech Republic Václav Havel

- On 1st January 1993 Czechoslovakia separated [sep@- rejtýd](rozdělit se) into the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Václav Havel became the president of the Czech Republic.

©Ali

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS CR

- 1 January, Tuesday: New Year's Day
- 19 April, Friday: Good Friday
- 22 April, Monday: Easter Monday
- 1 May, Wednesday: May Day
- 8 May: Wednesday: Liberation Day
- 5 July, Friday: St Cyril and St Methodius Day
- 6 July, Saturday: Jan Hus Day
- 28 September, Saturday: Statehood Day
- 28 October: Monday: Independence Day
- 17 November: Sunday: Freedom and Democracy Day
- 24 December: Tuesday: Christmas Eve
- 25 December: Wednesday: Christmas Day
- 26 December: Thursday: 2nd Day of Christmas

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS CR

- 1 January, Tuesday: New Year's Day
- 19 April, Friday: Good Friday
- 22 April, Monday: Easter Monday
- 1 May, Wednesday: May Day
- 8 May: Wednesday: Liberation Day
- 5 July, Friday: St Cyril and St Methodius Day
- 6 July, Saturday: Jan Hus Day
- 28 September, Saturday: Statehood Day
- 28 October: Monday: Independence Day
- 17 November: Sunday: Freedom and Democracy Day
- 24 December: Tuesday: Christmas Eve
- 25 December: Wednesday: Christmas Day
- 26 December: Thursday: 2nd Day of Christmas