

Complete the sentences. Use the past perfect and your own ideas.

- 1 I was worried that I had lost my keys.
- 2 I couldn't believe that ...
- 3 I was embarrassed because ...
- 4 I was disappointed because ...
- 5 I was pleased because ...
- 6 I suddenly remembered that ...

Imagine one bad thing that happened yesterday, and write it down. Look at the examples to help you.

The dog chewed my trainers.
My brother broke my iPod.
My mum burned my dinner.

SPEAKING Play a memory game in class. Each student adds an idea from exercise 7. Remember to use the past perfect.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer, and my brother had broken my iPod.

When I got home yesterday ...

Complete the sentences. Use the past perfect and your own ideas.

- 1 I was worried that I had lost my keys.
- 2 I couldn't believe that ...
- 3 I was embarrassed because ...
- 4 I was disappointed because ...
- 5 I was pleased because ...
- 6 I suddenly remembered that ...

Imagine one bad thing that happened yesterday, and write it down. Look at the examples to help you.

The dog chewed my trainers.
My brother broke my iPod.
My mum burned my dinner.

SPEAKING Play a memory game in class. Each student adds an idea from exercise 7. Remember to use the past perfect.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer, and my brother had broken my iPod.

When I got home yesterday ...

Complete the sentences. Use the past perfect and your own ideas.

- 1 I was worried that I had lost my keys.
- 2 I couldn't believe that ...
- 3 I was embarrassed because ...
- 4 I was disappointed because ...
- 5 I was pleased because ...
- 6 I suddenly remembered that ...

Imagine one bad thing that happened yesterday, and write it down. Look at the examples to help you.

The dog chewed my trainers.
My brother broke my iPod.
My mum burned my dinner.

SPEAKING Play a memory game in class. Each student adds an idea from exercise 7. Remember to use the past perfect.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer, and my brother had broken my iPod.

When I got home yesterday ...

Complete the sentences. Use the past perfect and your own ideas.

- 1 I was worried that I had lost my keys.
- 2 I couldn't believe that ...
- 3 I was embarrassed because ...
- 4 I was disappointed because ...
- 5 I was pleased because ...
- 6 I suddenly remembered that ...

Imagine one bad thing that happened yesterday, and write it down. Look at the examples to help you.

The dog chewed my trainers.
My brother broke my iPod.
My mum burned my dinner.

SPEAKING Play a memory game in class. Each student adds an idea from exercise 7. Remember to use the past perfect.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer.

When I got home yesterday, the dog had chewed my trainer, and my brother had broken my iPod.

When I got home yesterday ...