

1. What is a dental articulator?
2. Can it reproduce the full range of jaw movements?_
3. What is its function?
4. Describe a non- adjustable one
5. Describe a semi-adjustable one
6. Describe fully-adjustable ones
7. Explain the process of articulating the denture

1. What is a decay? What other names do we use for decay?
2. What causes it?
3. What are symptoms of decay?
4. What is the diagnosis? – the proces of looking for the decay?
5. What is the prevention? Talk about healthy diet, nutrition (protein, carbohydrates, vitamins..), you and dental health
6. What is the treatment for decay?
7. Do you know any other dental diseases?

1. Name parts of the upper digestive system
2. Describe oesophagus, what is it, what is its function
3. Name the main organs of the d. systém
4. What are accessory organs
5. Name three digestive disorders/ diseases, describe one of them

6. What is bile, where can we find it?
  7. Describe two kinds of digestion, where do they take place
-
1. What are the civilization diseases? What is it also called? What exactly are they connected with?
  2. Name some civilization diseases
  3. What are the ways to prevent lifestyle diseases?
  4. What are common health risk factors?
  5. Talk about a healthy diet
  6. Talk briefly about two of these diseases: acne, obesity, diabetes, heart disease and cancer. The causes, treatment, prevention
-
1. What does a dental Technician do?
  2. What are responsibilities of a dental Technician?
  3. What do they make?
  4. What skills do they need?
  5. What skills/ qualities do you have?
  6. Where do dental technicians work?
  7. Describe the risks/ safety in the lab/ equipment