Tennis ace wins tournament

Paul Gibson, a student from Radnor Secondary School has become the county under-15s tennis champion.

On Sunday, Paul, aged 13 and a half, won each of his three matches to gain a place in the final, where he faced his fellow school mate, Andrew Jennings. Although Andrew was the older player, his experience wasn't a problem for his opponent. Despite losing the first set, Paul kept his cool and played with amazing skill and strength to finally win the match 2-1.

Paul admitted that it had been a tough match, but said that he was delighted to be the winner. The town Mayor was present to award Paul his trophy. As part of his prize, Paul will be going to America this summer to a tennis camp where he will not only improve his tennis, but also meet lots of famous tennis stars!
